Description

Orange HDPE Construction Mesh 120 cm x 50 m - enhanced-height safety fencing for demanding work zones

The orange HDPE construction mesh with a height of 120 cm is designed for projects requiring increased visibility and a higher level of protection. Manufactured from durable and flexible HDPE polyethylene, it ensures long-lasting performance and excellent resistance to tearing. Delivered in practical 50 m rolls, it allows for quick installation and efficient fencing of large areas.

With 62 x 40 mm oval openings, a surface weight of 100 g/m² and a reinforcement band at mid-height, the mesh provides outstanding structural integrity. The bright orange colour is fully UV resistant, ensuring maximum visibility even under prolonged exposure to sunlight.

Key technical features

- height: 120 cm, length: 50 m,
- material: durable HDPE polyethylene,
- mesh opening size: 62 x 40 mm,
- weight: 100 g/m²,
- reinforced centre band for added strength,
- UV resistant high-visibility orange colour,
- reduced sail effect,
- quick installation and easy handling.

Applications and compliance

This 120 cm tall mesh supports compliance with standard safety and worksite regulations, particularly where increased barrier height is required. Common uses include:

- roadwork zoning and temporary fencing,
- construction site perimeter protection,
- pedestrian guidance systems,
- excavation and trench safety,
- industrial and warehouse zoning,
- crowd management during events.

Five additional uses

1. Securing public areas during maintenance work.
2. Temporary barriers in logistics areas.

3. Protecting planted areas in parks and recreation zones.
4. Designating technical zones at open-air festivals.
5. Separation of access routes at work sites.
